Leah Griffin - Why Washington Needs to Eliminate the Civil Statute of Limitations on Child Sexual Abuse

Speaker Leah Griffin -

Washington State Association for Justice

Leah is a leading advocate in Washington state for survivors of sexual assault. Over the past eight years, she has been instrumental in passing multiple laws to reform the systems which failed her as a victim of sexual assault. Those laws lead to the elimination of the rape kit backlog, tracking for sexual assault kits, survivors' rights, police training, and hospital protocols. She led on the Approve R90 campaign to create inclusive sexual health education in WA state school curriculum, and works on the coalition behind the Keep Our Care Act to provide oversight to religiously affiliated hospital mergers which seek to deny reproductive and trans healthcare.
